

FIASCO

IMRE KERTESZ

"We were thrilled that this great, Nobel Prize-winning author left a bigger, much more famous publisher to come to Melville House. And this is one of his most important—and gripping—books: After surviving a Nazi death camp, the author describes what it was like to come back to a country run by a different kind of tyranny: the Communists."

—DENNIS JOHNSON, CO-FOUNDER

MELVILLE HOUSE CELEBRATING TEN YEARS OF ROCKING THE BOAT
