

THE LATE LORD BYRON

DORIS LANGLEY MOORE

“Once upon a time we were lucky enough to have dinner with poet laureate W.S. Merwin and a bookseller. He asked her what poetry books worked best for her. She said biographies of poets, and he said, ‘Too bad, because the best bio ever written of a poet is out of print.’ We took note, and here it is. This book represents what our Neversink Library series is all about.”
